This challenge is open to all CP Students in grades 7-12. Students: if you are leaving lunch early and roaming the halls, you will be assigned Friday Night School. Also, if someone is bringing you lunch, they must bring it to the front office.

Sophomores and Juniors: it is very important that you charge your Chromebooks every night for the next two weeks and bring them to school every day. This week they will be practice tests for 10th and 11th graders and next week will be the actual ISTEP 10 tests and retests.

All Sophomores will need their Chromebooks to schedule classes. Sophomores who have not signed up to schedule need to do so as soon as possible.

Juniors: if you want to take summer government, please sign up in the Counseling Office today. Currently, there are only nine signed up and we need at least 15.

7th and 8th grade volleyball players have information to pick up in the office.

Seniors: this Sunday is College Goal Sunday. If you still need help with filing your FAFSA this is a great opportunity to get help from college financial aid employees. The event will take place at 2 pm on Sunday at Ivy Tech in Ivy Hall. See Mrs. McLaughlin for more information.

Z-Club will meet tomorrow morning at 7:45 in the library. Please be on time because this will be a quick-paced meeting. If you need a ride, please see Mrs. Scott.

Congratulations to Book, Line, and Sinker's members Evan Marty, Ashley Slayton, Samantha Cook, Chance Lamb, Eli Vote, and Luke Longnecker for winning last night's Battle of the Books in an intense competition that went into tiebreaker questions.
